

Our "Staple"

Stock Throughput and Pollution Liability Exposure

AXON Underwriting's STAPLE product is the first of its kind to combine Stock Throughput and broad third party pollution coverage into one policy form.

Stock Throughput is comprehensive all-risks coverage for an insureds goods commencing the moment they assume responsibility until their interest ceases. Coverage is provided for raw materials, work in progress and finished products on a global basis.

Key Features

$100 Million of available capacity

$10 Million of Third Party

Pollution Liability available

Policy application on a Primary and Excess basis

Key Benefactors

Distributors

Logistics Companies

Importers/Exporters

Manufacturers

Chemical, Oil and Gas Industries

High Tech, Bio Tech Industries

Stock Throughput Advantages

- Seamless worldwide coverage through the insured's supply chain
- Ocean cargo, inland transit and stock/inventory all under one policy
- Elimination of potential gaps between multiple policies
- Full 'All Risks' conditions for global storage and transit exposures
- Coverage includes Windstorm, Flood and Earthquake
- High limits and lower deductibles
- No percentage deductibles for catastrophic exposures
- Selling price basis of valuation provides an element of business interruption coverage
- Ease of administration through premium rating against sales turnover
- Reduces the need for time consuming declarations
- Combining of risks under one policy generates economies of scale and potential premium savings
- Competitive rates for CAT coverage for industry sectors and complex business

Minimum premium $10,000

For additional information contact Axon Underwriting at 678.210.3380