

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

Workplace Violence Extension

for Contaminated Product Insurance & Consumer product Recall Insurance

INSURED EVENT

Workplace Violence event: A premeditated attack by an Assailant who is physically present on the Premises and armed with a Weapon that causes Bodily Injury to at least one person physically present on the Premises; or any action of a Governmental Authority taken in suppressing, controlling, or minimizing the immediate consequences of such an attack described in paragraph a. above.

INSURED LOSSES

- Pre-Event Crisis Consultant Loss Mitigation with SOS Risk.
- Special Coverage
 - Public Relations Costs: public relations expenses to mitigate the negative publicity of the Event incurred within ninety (90) days of the Event;
 - Workplace Violence Event Services: expenses associated investigation, crisis management support and temporary security measures following an Insured Event up to ninety (90) days immediately following an Insured Event;
 - Medical Expenses: (other than counseling services and/or psychiatric care costs) incurred as a result of the Insured Event for any of the Named Insured's Employees, visitors, customers, contractors, students and/or vendors physically present during the Insured Event who sustained Bodily Injury, within three years of the Workplace Violence Event.
- Business Income and Extra Expense within twelve (12) months.

KEY FEATURES

- Extension included in all Primary Contaminated Product Insurance and Consumer Product Recall Insurance policies without prior Workplace Violence history;
- Access to a specialized Workplace Violence Consultant (SOS Risk);
- No Self Insured Retention or Waiting Period applies;
- Applies as Primary Insurance;
- Limit: $250,000 (higher limits available via additional underwriting);
- Limit applies as a separate limit from the Combined Policy Aggregate Limit of the Contaminated Product Insurance and Consumer Product Recall Insurance.

*Use of Government Databases: Axon uses storage tank information obtained from publicly available State and Federal government agency databases to underwrite and issue quotes for submitted accounts. Please be advised that is the Insured's or their broker's responsibility to review this database information and advise Axon prior to binding should any of the pre-populated information be incorrect or outdated.