

Dedicated Underwriting

Axon's specialized team of insurance professionals provide ILMA members with creative, comprehensive and competitive insurance solutions, on an exclusive program platform.

Axon's underwriters leverage industry knowledge to and collaborate with ILMA leadership to address exposures unique to ILMA members.

Axon is an established Program Administrator that has over 150 years of combined environmental experience, which includes a staff comprising of former insurance carrier executives, environmental engineers, senior environmental underwriters, environmental risk managers, and in-house legal professionals. Axon has the industry experience, high-efficiency platform, and multi-disciplinary underwriting knowledge needed to provide our brokers and clients best in class underwriting.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Jared Brown, AINS, ARM
Senior Underwriter
jbrown@axonu.com
(804) 256-3531

ILMA
Independent Lubricant Manufacturers Association
2026 MEMBER

Insurance Coverage Exclusive to ILMA Members

THE COVERAGE

Environmental and General Liability Exposures (EAGLE)

Primary General Liability form with added insuring agreements for pollution-related coverages including site liability, products pollution, non-owned disposal sites, transportation and contractor's pollution liability.

Excess Liability

Limits up to $25 million over the primary program, including or excluding pollution liability, auto liability, employers' liability and foreign liability with $1 million minimum underlying limit.

Auto Liability

Auto liability available upon request, with limits up to $1M.

THE VALUE ADD

Pollution Incident & Environmental Response (PIER)

Nationwide emergency response network of rigorously vetted and qualified service providers emergency response contractors, disaster recovery and restoration firms, environmental consultants, industrial hygienists, waste disposal firms, and investigative services ready to assist during every stage of an environmental incident.

CRISIS RESPONSE

Coverage and services designed to allow a company to act swiftly to mitigate losses and prevent repetitional damages by providing immediate access to funds needed to expedite recovery in the event of a potentially catastrophic environmental crisis

CLAIMS EXPERTISE

AIG Environmental's claims operation, with 80+ claims specialists, is the largest in the industry. The depth and breadth of the operation means devoted expertise to environmental claims of all types.